

The University of Mississippi

University Crest

Summary/Purpose: To define the purpose of the University Crest.

The official Crest of the University was designed in 1965 to be used to symbolize all University units and activities. With the creation of the Crest, the University established the policy that the Great Seal of the University would be used only on official documents. The policy is to refuse approval of various other symbols, seals, crests, etc., to represent various schools, departments, institutes, etc. identified with the University. There is a similar policy against special stationery for various University units when the stationery varies widely from the style officially approved by the Office of the Chancellor.

Use.

The University Seal shall be used only in connection with the transaction of business of The University of Mississippi. The seal may be affixed by the Secretary in the Office of the Chancellor on any document signed on behalf of the University. The Office of the Chancellor may grant use of the seal in the decoration of any University document or in other special circumstances.

Approval from the University of Mississippi Department of Licensing for any trademark which is any mark, logo, symbol, nickname, letter(s), word or derivative that can be associated with the University of Mississippi and can be distinguished from those of other institutions or entities.
