Copyright Restrictions

Summary/Purpose: Guidelines governing the photocopying or otherwise reproducing copyright materials.

The copyright law of the United States governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyright material. Photocopies or other reproductions can be furnished only under certain conditions, if they will be used solely for private study, scholarship, or research. Use of the reproduction for other purposes may make the user liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

If copyright permission is needed for reproduction of printed material, view website www.copyright.com
