

The University of Mississippi

Administration

Summary/Purpose: The purpose of this policy is to define the administrative structure.

The chancellor is responsible to the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning for the operation of the entire University of Mississippi system. The administration of the Oxford campus is carried out by the provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs, the vice chancellor for administration and finance, the vice chancellor for student life, the vice chancellor for University relations, and other administrators with university-wide responsibilities.

Academic programs are the responsibility of the provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs, who oversees the work of the deans of the College of Liberal Arts and the professional schools, the vice chancellor for research, the dean of the Graduate School, the dean of libraries, and directors of other academic programs. The administration of the Jackson campus is carried out through the vice chancellor for health affairs, to whom the deans of the various schools and the head of the University hospital all report.
