

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The University of Mississippi complies with all applicable laws regarding affirmative action and equal opportunity in all its activities and programs and does not discriminate against anyone protected by law because of disability. Decisions regarding admission to the University are made on the basis of admissions standards stated above. If assistance is needed to complete the admissions process because of disability-related reasons, incoming students must inform admissions' personnel of those needs.

In order for students to receive academic accommodations at The University of Mississippi, their eligibility must be verified. Students must be fully admitted to the University before the verification process can begin. For information regarding the verification process and documentation guidelines, students who may require academic accommodations should contact the Office of Student Disability Services at (662) 915-7128. Information can also be accessed through the office's Web site at www.olemiss.edu/depts/sds.

The University of Mississippi will make a good-faith effort to provide reasonable academic accommodations to those students who request assistance and who are verified as eligible. Students who may require accommodations or services through the Office of Student Disability Services are encouraged to ascertain, before enrolling in the University, whether the specific accommodations or services they may require would be available to them.
