

The University of Mississippi

I-20 Extension

Summary/Purpose: Extension of Stay for International Students

International students in F-1 status must apply for an extension of stay prior to the end date on the form I-20 if additional time is needed to complete the degree program. Extensions must be approved by the International Student Advisor and can only be done in specific circumstances as allowed by federal regulations.