

Respect for Property

DSA.SC.200.040

Summary/Purpose: To inform students of their duty to exercise good stewardship of resources and refrain from acts that may damage or deface property owned by others.

As good stewards of resources, students at the University of Mississippi will abstain from the willfully abusing or damaging the property of others or the University. Examples of behavior that are inconsistent with this value include, but are not limited to, littering, vandalism, or defacing University property or the property of students, faculty, staff, and guests. It is expected that all members of the University community will treat the property of the University and of others with respect. Students will be held responsible for any destruction or damage to University or personal property and may face University conduct charges, as well as criminal and/or civil liability.