

Permission Required to Use University Trademarks

Summary/Purpose: Written permission is required to use University of Mississippi trademarks

Any individual wishing to utilize any trademark held by the University of Mississippi must request permission (in writing) from the Office of Licensing. If products are created for resale, individuals or companies must apply and be granted permission to become a licensee of the University of Mississippi.