

Counseling Center Termination of Service

Summary/Purpose: To establish termination of services at the University Counseling Center.

The UCC reserves the right to terminate services to clients at any time when this is deemed necessary. Appropriate referral options will be provided to the client when and if this occurs.