

Faculty Meetings

General faculty meetings are called by the Chancellor or by his/her representative. All regular faculty members who are assistant professors, associate professors, or professors will be eligible to vote in general faculty meetings.