

Only One Official Identification Card
May Be Carried Per Person

Summary/Purpose: To protect the individual identification card holder against theft or abuse

Possession and/or use of a University of Mississippi ID card by someone other than the person identified on the card is a violation of university policy.