

Hoverboards and Personal Movers

Summary/Purpose: Establishes guidelines for the possession and operation of hoverboards or personal movers on the Oxford Campus of the University of Mississippi.

As a result of safety concerns, the University of Mississippi has prohibited the operation or charging of all hoverboards or personal movers in all university buildings or facilities. In addition, possession of hoverboards or personal movers is prohibited in any university residential facility.